

INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY FOR BIOELECTROMAGNETISM

<http://www.isbem.org>

The International Society for Bioelectromagnetism, ISBEM, is established in 1995 to promote the advancement of the science of Bioelectromagnetism and in furtherance thereof:

To facilitate the dissemination of new knowledge in bioelectromagnetism

To encourage new research in bioelectromagnetism

To sponsor International Congresses on Bioelectromagnetism

To assist with satellite meetings related to bioelectromagnetism by promoting meetings, lectures, discussions, seminars, conferences and by any other appropriate means.

Membership of the Society is open to all interested persons either technically, medically or scientifically qualified in Bioelectromagnetism.

INTERNATIONAL JOURNAL OF BIOELECTROMAGNETISM

<http://www.ijbem.org>

The International Journal of Bioelectromagnetism, IJBEM, is published by the International Society for Bioelectromagnetism. It is available at the Internet free of charge to all persons interested in Bioelectromagnetism. A printed version of the Journal is also available. The Guidelines for Contributors may be found on the web.
